

PREMIITA AÜTORO PRELEGOOS ĈE LA BK

KALLE KNIIVILÄ GASTPRELEGOOS PRI SIAJ LIBROJ EN LIVERPOLO

La jurnalisto Kalle Kniivilä afable jese respondis al nia invito veni en Brition kaj estos la ĉefa preleganto ĉe la Brita Kongreso en 2016, okazonta en Liverpolo.

Kalle probable plej koniĝas en Esperantujo pro sia starigo en 2003 kun István Ertl de Libera Folio, sendependa ĉereta bulteno pri la Esperanto-movado. Sed en la vera, eksterverda vivo li estas ĵurnalisto, laborante por la ĉefa gazeto de Malmö, Sydsvenska Dagbladet, kaj lastatempe premiita aŭtoro.

Sian unuan libron, Homoj de Putin, li publikigis en 2014, kiu por

Kalle gajnis la premion Kanava por la plej bona libro nefikcia de la jaro. Gin sekvis en 2015 Krimeo estas nia.

PRELEGOJ

Kalle kontribuos du prelegojn al la kongreso, kiuj ambaŭ rilatas al liaj libroj—kaj la unua, kaj unu verkata.

Homoj de Putin: pri la naturo de la rusia regimo, la kialoj de ĝia subteno inter rusianoj, kaj la ŝanĝoj okazintaj lige kun la anekso de Krimeo.

Nepoj de Sovetio: pri la historio, nuna situacio, politikaj sintenoj kaj mondopolitika signifo de la ruslingva minoritato en Estonio, Latvio kaj Litovio.

ALIAJ KONTRIBUAĴOJ

Kalle ne surĉultras la respondecon prelegi tutsole, kompreneble. John Wells parolos pri la loka dialekt, Scouse, kaj Hilary Chapman kontribuas sesion pri Edith Alleyne Sinnotte, liverpolanino kaj la unua virino kiu verkis novelon en Esperanto. Rolf Fantom konfirmis, ke li gvidos komedian kvizon, kaj ripetiĝos la bonveniga kvizo por gajni monon por la Fonduso Canuto, kiun ni unuafoje vidis en Brajtono.

Kiel en antaŭaj jaroj partoprenantoj ankaŭ havos la eblecon kune manĝi en restoracio Zizzi post la fermo. Pli da informoj inkluzive de hotel-eblecoj troviĝas ĉe britakongreso.org.

Tim Owen

I hope to have a Beatles appearance at the Brita Kongreso in March. But I imagine that Paul and Ringo will be busy that weekend, so I'm asking for you to help me rustle something up.

I think it might be fun to have a little competition. How about we combine the fun of audience participation with the Beatles and have a singing competition? All I need is, well, love, of course ... but in this case I'm thinking of singers and translations.

BYE BYE, EMMA

Since most of you also receive La Brita Esperantisto (which is looking fab, Paul and Simon), you'll have read that Emma Hudson, our emma-nently lovely admin assistant has moved on to bigger and better things.

There's an outstanding photo of Emma in the most recent issue, though she's dwarfed by the huge bouquet which she received from Paul Gubbins on her last day.

So I thought it would be nice to present a recent photo of Emma and Viv, and show the person who handled your book orders and mailed your magazines out to you. She's been in touch since leaving and is enjoying her new role.

COURSE TUTORS NEEDED

EAB provides correspondence courses, which only work because people kindly volunteer their time. A couple of our tutors have been particularly busy over the last year because of an increase in students arriving.

If you think you could contribute by joining them, please contact Viv and she'll give you more details. It's important that there be a quick turnaround, so please only apply if you will respond to emails very promptly—I know from personal experience from my first attempt at learning Esperanto that a delay in receiving a response is enough to stymie enthusiasm. I stopped then after the first lesson.

than I am to get in touch, please, and let me know that you're happy to join in. And I also need people to provide some translations. I can provide paper or electronic copies of the lyrics for translators to work from and will happily accept handwritten versions in return. Either contact me directly (tim.owen@esperanto.org.uk) or email or phone Viv, and I'll get in touch with you.

So please, please help me ... it'd be such a shame for this to be added to the list of ideas which got scrapped through lack of interest. It's not every year when we'd be able to do something like this and we'll have plenty of visitors from overseas (I hope—it's free to attend for them), so let's put on a fun show for everybody, shall we?

MYSTIC MEG HE WEREN'T

I was drawn not long ago to this quotation from R. Wellington Husband in the New York Times, back in 1908, at a time when there was quite vigorous correspondence in its pages about Esperanto: "Here I may say only that in the last two centuries about 150 artificial languages have been created, and not one of them has outlived its creator. The same fate probably awaits Esperanto."

Meanwhile, Duolingo has notched up 150,000 learners in the months since its launch—100,000 in the first 100 days. I made contact with a few of them prior to our recent beginners' courses at Esperanto House and was delighted to welcome, I think, five people there who had only started learning Esperanto just before. And a fun time was had by all!

That's not a bad refutation at all of that critic's prediction, 98 years after the death of Esperanto's initiator.

ESPERANTO EVENTS COMING TO LIVERPOOL

Liverpool will be Esperanto City over the next several months. The University of Liverpool will host the annual Buchanan lecture in late October and the three-day Masterclass in March. The 2016 British Esperanto Conference takes place immediately afterwards in a venue close by.

BUCHANAN LECTURE

Angela Tellier will give a public lecture on "W. E. Collinson: German, Esperanto and Interlinguistics at the University of Liverpool".

Collinson was an eminent linguist, and a lifelong Esperanto-speaker. He became a key figure in the histories and traditions of Esperanto and language-based activities at the University, including the relatively new field of Interlinguistics. An influential member of the International Auxiliary Language Association (IALA) until the late thirties, he was much involved with Otto Jespersen, Alice Vanderbilt Morris and other famous linguists in the study of international languages. He was the first, and longest-serving, Buchanan lecturer.

The lecture will be followed by a 30-minute introduction to original Esperanto Literature by Paul Gubbins. We'd be very happy to receive support from EAB members, so please feel very welcome to come along and be on hand to chat to attendees about Esperanto language and culture. Refreshments will be provided on site.

The Buchanan lecture takes place on October 22nd at 5PM in the Taylor Room, Sydney Jones Library, University of Liverpool.

DRONDO

Okazos en oktobro sesio de nia paroliga kurso en Londono.

Per la drondo ni celas paroligi homojn, ĉe se tiuj ne estas tre spertaj. Fluaj parolantoj ĉiam ĉeestas kaj la gvidanto scios kiam kaj kiel kuraĝigi partoprenon de tiuj malpli spertaj, kiu ĉiuokaze profitos per profundigo en medion kie paroliĝas ĉiutagaj aferoj.

La ĉefaj diskuteroj por tiu drondo estas: La Eŭropa Unio - Ĉu ni restos? | Ĉu vi volus centjariĝi? | La nacia balotado en 2015 - Ĉu reformiga? | Esperantistoj kiujn mi tre admiras. Aldone pluraj leĝeraj diskuteroj leviĝos, se la diskutado nature velkos antaŭ la fino de la ĉefaj sesioj.

Partopreno en Londono eblas kontraŭ nur £10, sed kunporto monon por manĝi kaj te-trinki.

Necesas antaŭmendi lokon—surpriza alveno tiutaga ne estos bonvena, ĉar tiel oni riskas tronombrigi la grupon kaj tiel malfaciligi diskutadon. Por mendi vian lokon kaj vidi kaj elſuti la diskutnotojn vizitu esperanto.org.uk/events/drondo. Se vi ne uzas la interreton, bonvolu kontakti la oficejon telefono.

Dato: 24an de oktobro, de la 11a ĝis la 17a horoj.

(Okazos ankaŭ sesio en Sheffield la 10an de oktobro se la reta versio de Update vin atingos ĝustatempe.)

BUCHANAN MASTERCLASS

This year's John Buchanan Masterclass in Esperanto offers an eclectic mix of discussion topics on the theme of Esperanto culture for advanced speakers of Esperanto, sessions on Esperanto literature and ticklish aspects of Esperanto grammar, and the opportunity for beginners and post-beginners to learn and improve their knowledge of the language.

The programme consists of three main study strands, although participants may mix and match according to preference. Refreshments and lunch are provided. Details of topics and presenters may be found on the Masterclass website, espinfo.org/masterclass-liverpool. In brief, the three strands are:

(1) A presentation and discussion of aspects of Esperanto culture for advanced speakers of Esperanto (Professors Duncan Charters and Renato Corsetti, in Esperanto).

(2) A study of key texts from original Esperanto literature (Dr Paul Gubbins, based on extracts from his bilingual anthology Star in a Night Sky, taught in English). This is complemented by sessions examining some typical aspects of Esperanto grammar, illustrated with examples from literature (Professor Wim Jansen, also in English);

(3) Beginner and post-beginner language-learning sessions (Anna Lowenstein, author of La Štona urbo and member of the Esperanto Academy).

In addition, Duncan Charters will deliver two early-evening lectures ("Issues in translation: Cervantes and Lorca in English and Esperanto" and "How Catalan Esperantists kept Catalan literature alive outside Spain in the post Civil War period").

For ideas on accommodation, information on attendance grants for young people under 25, and a provisional timetable, please see espinfo.org/masterclass-liverpool. The cost is expected to be modest, and when the link for registering becomes available on the university website, we will send an email message to inform members and publicise the details across our social media accounts. So there's something for everyone, and we look forward to welcoming you!

The John Buchanan Masterclass in Esperanto runs from the 16th to the 18th of March, 2016 at the Foresight Centre, University of Liverpool.

CONFERENCE 2016

As you'll have read in the latest edition of La Brita Esperantisto, there will be a conference in 2016 from Liverpool. We've decided to tag it onto the end of the Buchanan Masterclass in the hope of increasing participation in both events.

As in previous years we're offering two different types of ticket for the event. The basic cost is £44 for attendance, which includes a buffet on the Friday night and some refreshments over the weekend. There is the option to supplement this with light lunches on the Saturday and Sunday and some more refreshments—this "pluslunĉa kotizo" is £60.

The Conference will be held from the 18th to the 20th of March, 2016 at the Gateway Centre, Liverpool. Details at britakongreso.org.

TALK IN LONDON BY THE JAPAN SOCIETY

Dr Ian Rapley of the University of Cardiff will give a presentation in London under the heading "Esperanto in 20th Century Japan: Reimagining Japan's position on the World Stage".

The idea seems fascinating, concentrating on something about which little is known even within Esperanto circles.

"Since the opening of Japan to greater contact with the West in the mid nineteenth century, Japan's relationship with the wider world has been one of its most sustained and dynamic sources of new ideas. The Japanese have engaged internationally in a wide variety of ways and for a broad range of different motives. Despite the breadth of these means and purposes, all have faced a similar dilemma: the question of language. In short, the need to learn a (usually European) language has been a persistent barrier to better and more fruitful connections overseas.

For some, a potential solution to their problems came in the form of the constructed language Esperanto. Intended to facilitate international communication and cooperation, Esperanto was designed to be easy and fast to learn. Japan came to be the home of the largest non-European Esperanto community. Particularly in the 1920s and 1930s, a wide range of Japanese experimented with it: socialists and anarchists; schoolchildren; scientists, engineers and doctors, followers of various religions old and new; foreign visitors to Japan and Japanese abroad. Although peaking in the interwar period, it is a history which spans the twentieth century.

The Esperanto movement was but one part of a wide network of popular efforts: groups, and individuals seeking to reimagine Japan's position on a global scale. By following the broad history of popular, bottom-up attempts to forge connections with worlds beyond Japan's borders, Ian Rapley aims to explore a new dimension of the ways in which ordinary Japanese saw themselves, and the world around them."

Ian Rapley is a lecturer in modern East Asian history at Cardiff University. He is currently a UK Arts and Humanities Research Council International Placement Scheme fellow at the National Institute for the Humanities in Kyoto.

The presentation takes place on Monday, November 16th at 6:45PM, at the Swedenborg Society, 20-21 Bloomsbury Way (Hall entrance on Barter Street), London WC1A 2TH. Entrance is free but please book a place at japansociety.org.uk/event/esperanto-in-japan.

La 100a Universala Kongreso de Esperanto

La UK okazis en Lillo kaj laŭ raportoj de UEA ĉeestis 2.695 homoj el 80 diversaj landoj. La plej fekunda lando estis kompreneble Francio (724); nur Germanio (193) ankaŭ superis 100 landanojn. El Britio vojaĝis 58 homoj.

Reprezentis Brition ĉe la malferma ceremonio Ian Carter, kiu salutis nome de la Esperantistoj de Anglio, Skotlando, Kimrio kaj Nord-Irlando.

Dankon al Heather Eason kaj Penny Bryant pro la afabla permeso uzi ties fotojn.

La internaciaj lingvo kaj ludo renkontiĝis

Belega afero estas, ke la Tutmonda Esperanto Futbala Asocio sukcesis starigi matĉon kontraŭ alia internacia aro. La ludo inter la selektitaro de Esperanto kaj Okcidenta Saharo por la Pokalo Zamenhof ricevis multe da atento tutmonde, inkluzive de raportoj kaj fotoj en la futbala gazetaro franca.

La Esperanto-ludantaro surportis sian belan vestaron, kiel ankaŭ la spektantaro. Apogantoj ankaŭ havis specialajn t-ĉemizojn sur kiuj estis presitaj titolo—inter tiuj nombris Louis-Christophe Zaleski-Zamenhof.

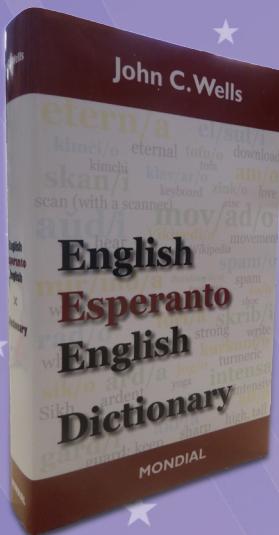

Je la duontempa paŭzo la skipo de Okcidenta Saharo estis venkanta de 4 goloj kontraŭ 0. Malfeliĉe ne okazis la dua partio, ĉar rapide kompreniĝis, ke iu ŝtelisto hontinde eniris la nešlositan vestejon kaj prirabis la ludantojn, kiuj kompreneble ne plu ludemis poste. Filmeto pri la matĉo spekteblas ĉe espinfo.org/futbalo-2015.
